McGill Rowing Alumni

*****e-Wave*****

Dear McGill Rowing Club Alumni,

We hope that the fall finds you all well. Here around the basin in Montreal, we are in the middle of a busy fall season and are gearing up for the Ontario and Canadian Championships in just a few weeks!

In this "e-wave" you'll find just a few updates on all that has happened since our last send-out Wave as well as news on what we have planned for the upcoming months.

* We would like to send out a full printed Wave with more detailed articles and alumni news close to Christmas time. However, we will need your help to make that possible! The wave account is BELOW its budget after the last publication. Therefore, if you enjoy reading the Wave and would like to ensure its future publication, please contribute to the next issue! Please send your intent to DONATE to mcgillrowing.alumni@po-box.mcgill.ca with "the Wave" noted in the memo section (tax receipts will be issued for all donations).

* On behalf of the entire crew, we would like to invite you to our end-of-season BANQUET which will be coming up in late November (date still to be determined) where you will be able to see some old friends, meet the new faces here and celebrate with us.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Carol and Alex at mcgillrowing.alumni@po-box.mcgill.ca (please note that there was a misprint error in the last Wave, and this is the correct rowing alumni address).

* If you know of any alumni who are not on our mailing or e-mailing lists but would like to be, please send us their information to the same address and we'll be sure to include them in the next issue.

That's all for now... enjoy the read, take care, and stay in touch.

All the best,

Jane Maxwell, MURC president

SPRING 2003 MCGILL-QUEEN'S REGATTA

So you haven't heard anything about last year's McGill-Queens Regatta!!! That is o.k. because, as the old adage says, no news is good news. That's right, McGill again brought home the D. Lorne Gales Challenge Cup as the overall winners of the 2003 spring's annual locking of horns with our arch rivals in Kingston!

It was a long day, beginning with taking off of the bow of one of our blessed novice boats, and continuing with long pre-race delays due to the ever-present Kingston wind (I'm talking a strong Westerly gale, not a weak Golden Gael). Yet once the racing started, there was nothing but intensity. It came down to the last race, when the novice women pulled out their big guns, put the pedal to the metal and stuck it to the man, securing a big win for the overall trophy! A quick rundown looks like this:

Varsity Men: 2km win, 500m win (winner of the Men's Blade)

Varsity Women: 2km lose, 500m lose

Novice Men: 2km win, 500m win!

Novice Women: 2km lose, 500m win!

This is the 5th time in 7 years that McGill has come home with the overall points trophy and the 6th time in 7 years that the men have won the Blade. Sounds like McGill dominance to me! A big thank you also goes out to alumni Alex Kuilman who both drove truck and coached at the regatta.

Come watch the dominance continue as this year's McGill-Queens regatta, which will be held in Montreal on Saturday, October 18th, 2003. Hope to see some of you there!

MCGILL EASTERN INVITATIONAL REGATTA October 18th, 2003

McGill University Rowing Club will be hosting the 10th annual McGill Eastern Invitational Regatta at the Olympic Basin on October 18th, 2003 in Montreal.

For the past nine years, the McGill University Rowing Club has been the proud host of the McGill Eastern Invitational Regatta, an official OUA event. In the past, crews from Ontario, the Atlantic Provinces and the North-Eastern United States have participated in the regatta, solidifying the Eastern Invitational's place in the Canadian University rowing circuit. This year, our women's heavyweight eight, lightweight women and men 4+, as well as novice men and women crews will be defending their titles to crews across eastern Canada! Let the competitions begin...
